

Code of Conduct Policy

For all members of Gurukul - The Day School

ABOUT THE DOCUMENT

Being a member of Gurukul - The Day School [Staff, Student or Parent] automatically implies that you have understood and agreed to the terms and conditions mentioned in this document.

Purpose of this document

This document acts as disclaimer as well as a guideline to decent and lawful behavior for all members of Gurukul - The Day School and its official websites.

Code of Conduct - Introduction

Parents, communities, and schools play a key role in shaping children's behaviour. Developing a student's self-discipline is a legitimate and constructive goal of education. Schools must maintain standards of conduct and discipline to ensure that students and school personnel have a safe and orderly learning environment. All students have the right to learn, and no student has the right to disrupt the learning process of others. Therefore, students are prohibited from interfering with or engaging in behaviours endangering the safety of others. This includes behaviour that occurs before, during and after school, in school buildings, on school property, at school related programs, on the way to or from school, and on school vehicles or regional buses that bring students to or from school.

The school's Code of Conduct Policy provides examples of expected behaviours, definitions of behavioural infractions (including its severity--Level I, II, or III), and possible corrective strategies. Some definitions include examples which are not intended to be exhaustive lists; that is, the behaviours covered by the definitions include, but are not limited to, the examples provided. The "students", "parents" and "staff" mentioned in this document refer to the members of Gurukul - The Day School (hereafter referred to as "GDS" or "School") in their respective roles.

Absences and Truancy

An excused absence is one which has been classified as excused by the school administration. An absence which falls under one (1) of the six (6) approved reasons for absences will be classified excused if the proper procedure(s) is followed by the student, parent or person acting as parent if a student is absent. The parent/guardian/legal custodian shall call the school as soon as possible. The student must bring a signed note from the parent/guardian/legal custodian stating the reason(s) for non-attendance upon the return date. Three consecutive absences due to illness of the student require a doctor's note upon the student's return to school.

An excused absence will be recorded as an absence on the student's attendance record, for the following reasons:

- 1] Illness of student
- 2] Illness in the family
- 3] Death in the family
- 4] Quarantine for contagious disease
- 5] Those approved in advance by the principal upon written request by the parent/guardian/legal custodian, or adult student
- 6] An act of God

Daily attendance impacts academic success. Excessive absences can contribute to school failure. When an absence is necessary, a student's parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) should report the absence to school officials before the assigned school starting time.

The school will:

1. Consider a student a chronic or habitual truant because of a lack of appropriate documentation for his/her absences/tardiness.
2. Provide the parent and/or student Truancy Legal Notice.

The administration of GDS strongly discourages the use of suspension and/or expulsion from school to enforce attendance or to deter unexcused absences.

Building Security

In order to provide the safest environment possible, all students may be subject to a security check and/or sanitisation process upon entering the building. Students will enter the building at the designated doors and may "walk through" a security system. If necessary, individual security checks may be done with a hand-held wand. In order to expedite security checks, please keep the following in mind:

1. Remove all keys from pockets or purses before going through the security check.
2. Remove all metal items and calculators from book bags.
3. See-through and/or mesh bags are strongly recommended.

Some items (i.e., mace on a student's key chain or a "box cutter") may be perfectly legal outside of school, but inappropriate for school. Parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) should be aware of what his/her children pack in their book bags and/or purses before leaving home.

Non-payment of Fees

If the Student/parent/legal guardians/custodians are unable to complete the full payment of the annual fees, within the prescribed period, the student and parents/ legal guardians/ custodians waive off any rights, claims and access to - but not limited to - school activities, school websites, school transport, school facilities, progress report cards and/or any official documents requested from the school until such a time as all the pending payments are completed with proper evidences of completion and school administration confirms receipt of such payments. If there is any doubt regarding details of payment of fees, it will be the responsibility of the payer to get in contact with school administration for the same.

Steps Following Student Misbehaviour

If a student commits or is accused of committing any offense, a school administrator will:

1. Investigate the incident, including meeting with the student and others involved to allow them to explain the situation.
2. Contact the parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) when necessary, explain the situation, and inform the parent of the corrective strategy that will be used.

What Parents Should Expect

When the school authorities find that a student has committed an offense, the principal or another school administrator will:

- Notify the parent by telephone as soon as possible that the student has been involved in an offense and may be suspended.
- Send a letter to the residence of the parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) explaining the student's suspension.

A parent may:

- upon request, meet with the principal to discuss the offense.
- receive a report on the school's investigation.
- appeal the student's suspension, if the parent is not satisfied with the principal's decision.

Emergency Removal from School

"If a student's/parent's/staff's presence poses a continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the school's activities taking place either within a classroom or elsewhere on the school premises," school authorities may remove such a person from the school premises. Upon receipt of a removal letter, parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) must report to a meeting as and when scheduled by the school administration. The meeting will provide staff, student(s) and parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) an opportunity to discuss the behaviour and share perspectives on the matter. Failure to attend the meeting may result in an out-of-school suspension. In the event an out-of-school suspension is warranted, the initial days of removal will be deducted from the days of out-of-school suspension. Students are to remain home during school hours and not attend/participate in school-related activities until further notice.

Permanent Exclusion

The School Management may seek the permanent exclusion of any student who is convicted in criminal court, found delinquent, or found to have assisted in connection with any of the Level-2 and Level-3 offenses mentioned in the document.

The school authorities may consider permanent exclusion based on the severity or number of offenses.

Discipline for Pre-primary and primary students

Due to maturation levels, Pre-primary and primary year programs may experience offences like biting, kicking, and other behavioural problems. It is strongly recommended that staff, parent(s)/guardian(s)/legal custodian(s) and school authorities work collaboratively to develop and implement corrective strategies for working with difficult and hard to manage students. It is ultimately the decision of the building administrator to determine the most appropriate method. The building administrator must employ corrective strategies that will ensure the safety of all.

The School Management's policy of non-discrimination and anti-harassment will extend to students, staff, job applicants, the general public and individuals with whom it does business, and will apply to race, national origin, citizenship status, religion, sexual orientation, economic status, age, handicap and other human differences.

By confirming the student's admission and/or accepting job and/or being a member of Gurukul - The Day School in any other capacity, you agree to the understanding and acceptance of terms and conditions mentioned in this document.

The school management reserves the right to amend/modify/edit this policy without any prior intimation to staff, student, parents or any other stakeholders of the institute.
